

I write in support of the Indiana Do-Not-Call List. Attorney General Steve Carter has honored the wishes of Indiana residents a strong law. I respect the right of the federal government to regulate communications, but Indiana should have the right to govern activities within its borders according to the wishes of its residents. I appreciate the opinions and interests of the banking community. However, I believe that the will expressed by the citizens of Indiana should supercede those considerations.

Thank you.